

Jennifer C. Sauviac Webb, BCBA

Tel: 773- 442-2485 Fax: 866-862-0442 jsauviac@gmail.com

Education

Northeastern University, Boston, Massachusetts

Masters of Science in Applied Behavior Analysis, January 2008

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida

Bachelors of Science in Psychology, May 2003

Bachelors of Arts in Criminology, May 2003

Certifications

Board Certified Behavior Analyst

Certification Number 1-08-4505

Experience

Solo Provider, BCBA

Journeys ABA, March 2010- present

- Conduct ABLLS assessment and write comprehensive evaluation for each client
- Conduct VB-Mapp assessment and write comprehensive evaluation for each client
- Provide direct therapy to clients in a home setting
- Develop a behavior plan specific to the needs of each client
- Meet weekly with parents to review client goals, progress and concerns

Behavior Therapist

North Shore Pediatric Therapy, September 2008- July 2009

- Conducted evaluation meetings with families
- Conducted ABLLS assessment and write a comprehensive evaluation for each client
- Developed academic goals specific to the needs of each client
- Developed a behavior plan specific to the needs of each client
- Interacted with families on a weekly basis

Coordinator

New England Center for Children, September 2006- August 2008

- Supervised team of 16 staff
- Lead weekly team meetings to discuss school-wide, team and student-specific topics
- Oversaw four cases
- Met with case managers weekly to address student objectives and progress
- Revised progress reports
- Reviewed current performance and projected student goals at IEP meetings
- Provided teacher training
- Conducted teacher observations and wrote teacher evaluations
- Oversaw general operation of residence
- Managed team budget

Special Education Teacher

New England Center for Children, August 2003-September 2006

- Managed one case student
- Contacted parents weekly to discuss student progress and parental concern
- Summed academic and behavior data weekly
- Wrote progress reports on IEP objectives
- Conducted functional analyses
- Conducted preference assessments